

THE WORK

Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. On him the father has placed his seal of approval. They asked him, “What must we do to do the works God requires?” Jesus answered, “The work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent.”

John 6:27-29

“My Father is always at his work to this very day, and I, too, am working.”

John 5:17

My food said Jesus, is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work. Do you not say four months and then the harvest? I tell you open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest. Even now the reaper draws his wages; even now he harvests the crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together.

John 4:34 – 36

I told you yesterday that you must persist. This work to which I have called you to is just that – work. The work of steadying your mind, quieting it before Me. It is changing the focus from thinking to listening. You are hard of hearing, but I am He who opens deaf ears. Yours is no hopeless case. Do not worry if you make mistakes, I will keep you from harm and from doing harm - that is My promise. Read over these words. They will encourage you and strengthen you to go on. Be assured I am in this process

Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new (work) thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? Isaiah 43:18-19

You cannot see the work I am doing in your soul, My child. It must remain hidden from your eyes. There is no cause for despair or pride. The work is Mine, the outcome is Mine. Your (work) task is the task I have set before you. Keep on the path I have laid out for you. Watch the little foxes that destroy the vine – the easy carelessness, drifting back into old patterns of thought and words. I am still doing a new thing, My child, so keep trusting that, the old has passed, behold the new is here. I am your daily “newness” and refreshment.
